

Meredith Owen is from Ridgeland, Mississippi. After a year at Mississippi State University, Meredith returned home to Ridgeland High School, where her love of the arts first began, to choreograph and direct the RHS Colorguard as well as establishing the winter program in 2015. Currently, Meredith is a freelance judge, choreographer, and designer along with being a senior History Licensure major at the University of Southern Mississippi. She has been working at Petal High School since 2015 as the Colorguard Director in conjunction with being a choreographer and visual consultant for the marching band and the Scholastic World Finalist, Petal Indoor Percussion Theatre. Meredith spent her drum corps career with The Cadets Drum and Bugle Corps and she is currently spinning her last year with Conversion Independent. She is ecstatic to be returning to the Louisiana Stars Colorguard as an Assistant Caption Head, and cannot wait to see what 2018 season holds!
