

Medical Student Assistant

Be part of the action as a member of the fast-paced Louisiana Stars Medical Team! Learn how Louisiana Stars travels throughout the country, and help with preparation and execution of all aspects of tour. As a medical student assistant, you will have the opportunity to learn, collaborate, and work on real projects, and experience what it is like to work for a professional organization, all while helping the 2020 Louisiana Stars on the road to success. We are looking for someone who hustles by default, and is exceptionally detail-oriented. This person will be a creative mind with an insatiable curiosity to learn all there is to know about the day to day tasks of the medical team

Medical Student Assistant Report to

The medical student assistant will report to the head of medical team.

Internship Overview

As a medical student assistant for Louisiana Stars Drum and Bugle Corps, you will be caring for the health of its members, staff, and volunteers. A number of situations may arise that you may have to act on and use your best clinical judgment. As a medical student assistant, you will be expected to learn common athletic injuries, medical emergencies, and clinical issues that may be faced throughout the summer. You will be taught how treat and care for these clinical issues and will work under a healthcare professional.

Responsibilities and Duties

- Assist in driving members to walk-in clinics and emergency rooms
- Care for marching members as they face athletic injuries, mental health struggles, healthcare emergencies, and other clinical issues that may surface over the season
- Keep record of member's health history and allergies
- Maintain confidentiality of medical information
- Work well with others and under a team leader
- Be willing to learn from other healthcare professionals

Qualifications

- Currently enrolled in or a graduate of a nursing/athletic training/PT/OT/pre-med program

- Previous healthcare experience encouraged, but not required
- BLS/First Aid certification preferred
- Must be able to spend multiple hours outside during the summer
- Is available throughout the summer starting at the end of June through the middle of August (Timeline negotiable)

Physical Demands

- Moving about on foot to accomplish task for sustained periods of time
- Standing, particularly for sustained periods of time
- Substantial movements (motion) of the wrist, hands, and/or fingers in a repetitive manner
- Moderate physical activity performing somewhat strenuous daily activities of a primarily product/technical nature
- Exerting up to 50 pounds of force occasionally to lift, carry, pull, or otherwise move objects

Location and Schedule

Part time positions will be structured around the corps' summer tour and offer potential travel with the Louisiana Stars Drum & Bugle Corps. Summer positions run from the months of May-August (start and end dates are flexible and based on schedule). Assistants will be working only a portion of the season.

Compensation

The Louisiana Stars Drum and Bugle Corps Medical Student Assistant is a part-time unpaid position. Compensation will include housing, transportation (conditional), and food provided to those traveling with the corps (summer). Terms for college credit are negotiable.

Additional Information

To perform this job successfully, an individual must be able to perform each essential duty satisfactorily with or without reasonable accommodations. The requirements listed above are representative of the knowledge, skill, and/or ability required. This job description should not be construed as an exhaustive statement of duties, responsibilities or requirements, but a general description of the job. Nothing contained herein restricts the company's rights to assign or reassign duties and responsibilities to this job at any time.

Application Process

Please fill out the application form on the Louisiana Stars website and submit your resume, short cover letter, references and supporting applicable materials to Head of Medical Team Kayla Brown at brownlkayla1997@gmail.com.

Applicants may be subject to a screening project and a series of phone/live interviews as part of the evaluation process. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, sex, age, national origin, religion, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, marital status, citizenship, or any other protected status. The Louisiana Stars Drum & Bugle Corps offers equal opportunity and treatment to all who apply and is committed to diversity.